STATEMENT ON THE ACTIONS OF DISTRICT ATTORNEY SANDRA DOORLEY

The Democratic Caucus of the Monroe County Legislature is extremely troubled by the video of the interaction of District Attorney Sandra Doorley with officers of the Webster Police Department. Her actions were unacceptable.

Public officials are not above the law; they serve the people and must be held responsible for their actions like everyone else. Using a position of power to evade accountability undermines trust in the system and erodes the principles of justice and equality.

We salute the professional manner in which officers of the WPD conducted themselves in a difficult situation.

We support any further appropriate investigation into this encounter by law enforcement officials.
